With a combined 70 years of experience in the aviation industry, NetJets and PAZOS are pleased to announce the opening of the new state-of-the-art FBO at Luis Muñoz Marin International Airport in San Juan, Puerto Rico. “We are thrilled and honored to be associated with such a prestigious company like NetJets, the world’s leader in private aviation,” said Jose Maldonado, president of PAZOS FBO Services. “This relationship highlights the value of PAZOS as one of the premier FBOs in the Caribbean.”

The newly-constructed FBO boasts impressive corporate meeting accommodations that feature the latest telecom, multimedia technology, and other upgraded features. This world-class facility offers modern executive lounge amenities, including fine gourmet selections from the PAZOS delicatessen.

It also provides operational enhancements, such as aircraft fuel storage and distribution updates that meet the highest NetJets safety standards.

While passing through, you’ll experience a faster, easier, and more convenient customs clearing process at the on-site, full-service U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) terminal. PAZOS’ partnership with the U.S. customs and immigration office allows it to be the only FBO in Puerto Rico that can offer full-service U.S. Customs, which gives international travelers quick, convenient clearance through customs and immigration like never before.

Spring break is in full swing and the journey will be just as relaxing as your final destination. NetJets has a few tips and reminders for when your travel plans include furry friends or tiny travelers, so you can focus on relaxing and unwinding together as a family.

Pampering Your Pets

Pets are members of the family, and we want to make sure their flight is as comfortable as yours. Sometimes just a special treat or an extra soft blanket can make a flight easier on pets. Reach out to your Owner Services Team to let us know how we can accommodate your furry family member.

Securing Your Pet

FAA regulations indicate that pets under 150 pounds may occupy a passenger seat. Pets weighing over 150 pounds must remain on the floor, if aircraft floor space can accommodate without impeding access to the aisle or exits. During taxi, takeoff, and landing, it’s important to make sure your pet is secured in the cabin. There are three seating options depending on the aircraft size:

1. Pet Carrier
2. Belted Into Seat
3. Pet Belted Into Passenger’s Seatbelt (Pet out of aisle)

Tidying Up

We’re sensitive to the fact that some of our Owners have pet allergies. We clean all aircraft thoroughly after every flight. So when you step onboard, the cabin is spotless.

“Yesterday, Devin (my wife) had her first experience aboard the Falcon 2000. I received about 9 texts during the flight letting me know how much she enjoyed the entire experience. She had two of the dogs with her and everyone was so accommodating and professional that we wished we had joined years ago.”

CATERING TO KIDS

We will do everything possible to ensure your kids’ comfort. That includes helping pass the time with custom-designed coloring books and coloring pencils and offering kid-friendly menu items and snacks. If there is something special we can do to make the trip exceptional for tiny travelers, please let us know. We’ll be sure to have all your flights stocked with those specific items.

TIPS FOR PARENTS

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and NetJets strongly recommend that children are secured in a Child Restraint System (CRS) or other approved device. A CRS is a hard-backed child safety seat that is approved by the government for use in both motor vehicles and aircraft. It may surprise you, but not all car seats are aircraft approved by the government. To make sure your CRS is approved for aircraft use, please look for the statement: “This restraint is certified for use in motor vehicles and aircraft”, printed on the device.

"We want to extend our greatest thanks to the teams that were in charge of our flights this week. The children loved the gifts in preparation for their trip to Disneyland. Once again, your crew has exceeded our expectations and we are proud to fly with NetJets. We appreciate all you do and thank you for keeping us safe”.

- Leslie McKinney, NetJets Owner

Last year NetJets flew a total of 17,234 child passengers.
